Home Banking Signup Form

Dear Valued Member,

Did you know that Niagara Falls Air Force now offers the convenience of "FREE" Online Home Banking to our members? Our Home Banking system is ready and waiting for you. It is widely used by members on a daily basis, and is available day or night. Just think, all this from the comforts of your own home or office!

If you would like to take advantage of online banking, all you need to do is sign the enrollment form below and return it to a representative at the credit union. You will then be on your way to:

- View account balances
- View transaction history
- View cleared checks activity
- Transfer funds between savings, checking, club and loan accounts
- Request a withdrawal from your account

This system uses a secure socket layer and 128 bit encryption to protect your data. Your financial account data is protected by a unique password, which you can change as often as you like once in the home banking site. No identifying information about our members such as name, address or social security number is transmitted to the web.

Please Complete Below and Return to the Credit Union

The undersigned member would like to take advantage of the Niagara Falls Air Force Air Force FCU's On-line Home Banking Services.
